Ayden's Adventure Books

The ideal set of books

Clothes peg seaplane

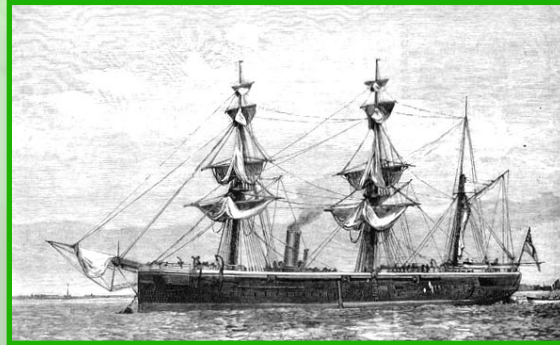

Small seaplanes like the clothes peg planes would require between 180 and 460 metres for takoff

HMS Doterel

During the move from sailing ship to steam power, the crossover saw steam powered sailing ships like the Doterel. They may have had one or two funnels. After the second ship suffered the same problem, the ship design and procedures were reviewed. The full story can be found in the websites below.

These examples and others collected by Ayden's Adventures, may be viewed at a school by arrangement

Making models

Please feel free to download model files available on the website as you wish, but to guarantee a quality print for cutting out the shapes, perhaps the Colour and Cutout Book might be for you. It also includes additional items.
